

THE UNIVERSITY OF FINDLAY

Instructor in Physics

The University of Findlay invites applications for a full time, non-tenure-track position as an instructor in physics to begin August 2010.

Candidates must hold a minimum of a Master's degree in physics or engineering and must be able to teach general physics and laboratories. Preference will be given to candidates with teaching and/or laboratory experience. The successful candidate is expected to maintain the physics laboratory, and teach introductory physics with labs. Candidates must be committed to student-centered education as well as professional development; those able to engage students in undergraduate research are preferred.

The University of Findlay is a Carnegie Master's/L institution which has grown from 2,000 to over 4,000 students in the last twenty years and is the largest private university in northwest Ohio. Founded in 1882, The University provides innovative programs grounded in the liberal arts and sciences to prepare students for meaningful lives and productive careers. The University is committed to the education of diverse students and enrolls students from nearly 40 nations and most US states.

Applications should be sent to Dr. Terry Schwaner, Dean, College of Sciences, The University of Findlay, 1000 N. Main Street, Findlay, OH 45840 or email to baier@findlay.edu. Applications should be identified PHYSICS and should include a letter of application, statement of teaching philosophy, curriculum vitae, graduate transcript(s) and three letters of reference. Review of applications will begin on March 30, 2010, and continue until the position is filled. For more information on The University of Findlay, visit <http://www.findlay.edu>. The University of Findlay is an equal opportunity employer and educator.

For more information on The University of Findlay, visit <http://www.findlay.edu>

