

Findlay to Graduate Large Class May 1

More than 800 students will graduate from The University of Findlay during spring commencement ceremonies at 2 p.m. Saturday, May 1, in the Koehler Complex on campus.

More than 300 graduate degrees will be awarded, including 49 doctor of pharmacy degrees. These will be the first graduates of the College of Pharmacy, which was established in 2004. A hooding ceremony for pharmacy graduating students will be held earlier in the day.

More than 400 undergraduate degrees will be awarded, including approximately 80 bachelor of arts degrees and 320 bachelor of science degrees. More than 50 associate of arts degrees will be conferred.

Among the UF graduates are more than 120 international students who will receive master's degrees and 16 international students who will receive bachelor's degrees. Those students represent the countries of Nepal, India, Saudi Arabia, China, Taiwan, Japan, South Korea, Canada and Venezuela.

Brigadier General Patrick Finnegan, dean of the academic board of the United States Military Academy at West Point, N.Y., will give the commencement address. He becomes president of Longwood University in Farmville, Va., on July 1, 2010.

The University's traditional Arch Ceremony will immediately follow commencement at about 3:30 p.m. at the Griffith Memorial Arch in front of Old Main.
