Spring Horse Sale 2005

April 23, 2005

Sale begins at 10:00 am

The University of Findlay's Western Equestrian Farm

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF HORSE SALE:

Applicable Law: All horses are offered according to the laws of the State of Ohio. There are no warranties or guarantees implied as to the fitness for any particular purpose (s) of any horse offered in this sale. Our best efforts have been employed to document unsoundness or vices in any animal – such records are available for review before the sale. Buyers are cautioned to examine records and horses closely before purchasing. There are no guarantees whatsoever regarding brood mares in foal, pregnancy status, future reproductive ability or eventual foaling. Every effort has been made to give complete disclosure of all known negative factors (health, disposition, management, etc.) on all horses in the sale. However, no employee or agent of the University of Findlay can or shall be considered responsible for any oversight of a fault. All horses are sold “caveat emptor” (buyers beware). All sales are final and absolute.

Bidding Procedure: Registration as a bidder commits that bidder to purchase any horse for which he/she has the winning (high) bid. Absentee bids must have payment method approved prior to the sale. The auctioneer will decline any bids made by parties who have defaulted on former purchases or persons whom in his sole judgment are not responsible bidders, and the auctioneer’s decision shall be final. The University of Findlay reserves the right to set a floor price on each horse.

Bidding Disputes: Should any dispute arise between any two bidders, the auctioneer shall adjudicate the dispute and his decision shall be absolute. Bids received after the fall of the gavel are not valid. Bids acknowledged by official bid spotters are recognized as if tendered to the auctioneer, but in case of dispute, the bidding shall be restricted to the contending parties, but should the recognized bid have to be reduced below the bid at commencement of the dispute, then bidding shall be reopened to all bidders.

Risk to Horses: The purchaser, at the gavel fall, assumes all risk and responsibility for the horse. All horses must be removed from the farm within 24 hours of purchase. During the stay of the horse, students shall continue to provide all normal care. Students or staff will be available to assist with loading horses, but without any liability being accepted for injury or accidents to animals, persons, or equipment. During the stay of the horse, neither The University of Findlay, its employees, officers, or agents shall be liable for any accidents, disease, death, or injury to any horse. Nor shall the aforementioned agents be responsible for any accidents or injuries inflicted by the horse on any persons, facilities, or equipment.

Payment: Purchaser must make payment by cash or personal check within 30 minutes of the conclusion of the sale, at which time a stable release form for the horse shall be given. Make all checks payable to The University of Findlay. On purchases by personal check, title/registration papers shall be held until funds clear the bank, at which time they shall be mailed or picked up by the new owner. Horses purchased by cash shall have their title/registration papers transferred at the time of payment. Purchaser may not stop payment of a check given in payment for a horse or its board for any reason.

Sale Conditions: Terms of the sale will be check or cash unless prior arrangements have been made. Each animal will be sold to the highest bidder with the auctioneer settling any disputes as to bids. Each animal will become the property of the buyer as soon as sold.

Public Liability: The University of Findlay, nor its employees, officers, or agents assume any responsibility for any injury, death, or damage of any kind to a person or animal. Examine horses at your own risk. The public is cautioned to be very careful while on the grounds examining horses and particularly while the horses are being ridden or driven.

Any questions regarding horse health can be directed to Dr. Michael Kerns, DVM and Dr. Farabee McCarthy, Ph.D. The University of Findlay, Findlay, OH 45840.

April 23, 2005

Dear Guests,

This sale has been proudly put together and executed by the 2005 Equine Marketing class, under the careful instruction of Dr. Farabee McCarthy. This is the first horse sale being offered at the University of Findlay with plans for additional sales in the future.

This event is a well-organized, student-managed event which aims to offer good quality horses for sale that are suitable for riders for all levels of experience. The school horses offered in this sale have all had many hours of experience in areas such as pleasure, trail, line driving, horsemanship, showmanship, and more. There are also many nice, quality consignment horses that will be offered for sale as well.

Our class has spent the last several months learning about different marketing procedures and being educated on proper sales administration. This sale is the culmination of those teachings and will allow our class to manage and conduct a professional production sale. The horse demonstrations will start at 11:00 am and the sale will begin at 1:00 pm. There will also be a tack auction that will begin at 10:00 am. Food and refreshments will be offered for purchase at the sale.

We appreciate everyone who has helped put this sale together, as well as all of the guests who have come to join in the experience. Good luck to all those who will purchase a horse here at the sale, we look forward to seeing you at our next sale.

Thank you,

The 2005 Equine Marketing class
The University of Findlay

15.1 hands, this mare will make a great all around, 4-H, open or AQHA novice level horse. Has been started over fences and is a willing prospect in this area. The mare has spent the past 2 years as an educational tool for a high school level equine program where he has had many different riders of different skill levels. Maintains a good disposition and quiet manners. She has also been used as a 4-H project and has been successful.
