academic advising & student internships

[Be] informed. [Be] proactive. Be a better faculty member and adviser by learning how these three areas—advising, internships, and career counseling—are part of the University's mission of equipping students for meaningful lives and productive careers. Learn how you can [Be] involved in your student's success through these areas. Presenters will include Ms. Donna Smith, Director, Academic Support Center; Mr. Kevin Cluts, Assistant Director of Career Services, Director of Internships and Cooperative Education; and Mr. Brad Hammer, Assistant Director of Career Services and Director of Career Placement.

an overview of teaching, scholarship, tenure & promotion, and library support for faculty

In this brief session, faculty will learn about a variety of services and workshops available to support teaching and research endeavors on campus, including those necessary for tenure and promotion. Presenters include Dr. Christine Denecker, CTE faculty liaison; Dr. Christine Tulley, CTE faculty liaison; and Ms. Rebecca Quintus, Information Services Librarian.

blackboard & illuminate update

You may think that you know Blackboard and Illuminate, but let us introduce you to some new and innovative tools in both of these important teaching tools. We believe you will find great uses for both Bb and Illuminate not only for your online courses, but also for your traditional/face-to-face and hybrid courses. Your presenters will include Mr. Mike Shaffer, Academic Technology Specialist: Trainer & Technical Support; and Mr. Scott Trimmer, Blackboard Administrator, from The Center for Teaching Excellence.

internal & external grant funding on campus

Do you have new and exciting ideas for teaching and research? Are you interested in receiving money to make these ideas happen? If so, attend this session on internal and external grant programs and how to access the funds you need for research, classroom teaching, or program development. Web tours will be presented of the various programs available both from The University of Findlay and outside funding agencies. Find out what you need to know in order to apply for grants, including how and when to apply for funds. The session will be presented by Ms. Jill Gear, Director of Grants; Ms. Cheryl Cape, CTE faculty liaison; and Dr. Ray McCandless, CTE Director.

new voices in academic service-learning

Three UF faculty who incorporated Academic Service-Learning activities into their courses for the first time during the 2008-09 academic year will explain how they used AS-L to achieve specific course outcomes in their courses.

Also included in this session:

- How Campus Compact facilitates Academic Service-Learning
- Resources to help match goals of your courses with needs in the community
- An introduction to AS-L workshop series for the 2009-10 academic year

Panel presenters include: Dr. Nicole Dierich, Professor of English; Dr. Cheri Hampton-Farmer, Assistant Professor of Communication; Mr. Jens Hatch, Instructor of Communication; Dr. Diana Montague, Professor of Communication and Faculty Liaison for Academic Service-Learning; and Ms. Crystal Weitz, Campus Compact Coordinator.

print shop, oiler onecard and its updates

Everything you wanted to know about online printing requests, the Oiler OneCard, and Information Technology improvements, but were too afraid to ask... Come to this session to learn: 1) what to know about copyright rules in traditional and online courses and how to submit online requests to have syllabi, course packs and other documents printed by the UF Print Shop; 2) the mysteries of the OilerOne Card and all it can do for faculty; and 3) the many improvements made to UF's information technology services, including the new collaborative features of Zimbra, interactive whiteboards, and the new UF portal. Updates will be given by Ms. Sandy Saunders, Director of Facilities Scheduling and Events; Mr. Tony Wenzinger, Director, Print and Postal Services; and Mr. Scott Walthour, Information Technology Officer.

zimbra

Join the email, calendar and collaboration revolution! This session will introduce you to the main Zimbra tools that allow you to integrate email, contacts, shared calendars and greatly improve syncing with your mobile devices. UF joined the Zimbra revolution this summer. Mr. Scott Trimmer, Blackboard Administrator, will be presenting information for this session.
