Living and Learning at Findlay

Research is paramount at University of Findlay. With more than 25 science laboratories, a substantial cadaver lab, student-run green technology houses, and the Rieck Center – our 55-acre outdoor "classroom" – students are encouraged to take what they learn in the classroom and test those theories under the coaching and guidance of faculty mentors.

Findlay also has an active arts community in both creative and performing arts. At Findlay, our students benefit from being able to pursue their academic passion and continue to have a creative outlet through visual and performing arts.

Housing and Living Space

As international students, you can choose to live on campus or live close to campus in a non-university owned/managed apartment or house. To help new students decide the best living option, the University has a number of International Welcome Houses. New international students may stay in the Welcome Houses for up to 10 days while they decide whether they want to live on or off campus. The houses are located on campus and each is staffed with a graduate assistant. All houses have furnished bedrooms, a living room, kitchen, wireless Internet and laundry facilities. The cost is $20 per night. For students who would like to purchase a bedding set (sheets, pillowcase, blanket, pillow, bath towel, hand towel and a washing sponge), they are available for $50.

Students deciding to live on campus, will join the more than 1,350 other students who live in one of the University’s eight residence halls, spacious townhouses, apartment-style cottages and special interest houses.

Activities & Adventures

Since UF is a small campus, students can be involved in as many activities as they want. They can sing in the Concert-Chorale, join a social fraternity, host a show on WLFC 88.3 or become a part of any of our student organizations. Students also enjoy concerts, comedians and entertainers that perform on campus, at no additional cost.

Recreational Services

UF has 24 intercollegiate sports teams and is a member of the National Collegiate Athletic Association (NCAA) Division II and of the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, and competes in the Intercollegiate Horse Show Association and Intercollegiate Dressage Association. Findlay also offers many intramural sports teams that are open to all students, cardio center with indoor track and game rooms with arcade-style games, ping pong and air hockey tables.
The Right Place for You
