INTERNATIONAL SUMMER CAMP

THE UNIVERSITY OF FINDLAY
Established in 1882, The University of Findlay is an accredited private, coeducational institution located in northwest Ohio. It is within a two-hour drive of Columbus, Ohio; Cleveland, Ohio; and Detroit, Michigan.

Findlay provides the best of both worlds. It offers many of the cultural, recreational and commercial opportunities found in a large city, plus the friendliness and accessibility of a small town.

UF ranks in the top tier of U.S. News & World Report’s “America’s Best Colleges” in the Midwest and was named a Best Midwestern College by the Princeton Review for the past three years. It has been recognized as one of “America’s Best Private Colleges” by Institutional Research and Evaluation Inc., an independent research organization specializing in higher education.

The University is located in the city of Findlay. The city of Findlay ranks second in top micropolitan communities in the U.S. because of our wide selection of locally-run restaurants, vibrant downtown, excellent parks system and new and emerging businesses and industries.

Students are able to enjoy many of the benefits of going to school in a larger community such as great restaurants, shopping, access to internship and full-time job opportunities that you get in larger cities, but in a safe, progressive community.
SUMMER CAMP DESCRIPTION

In July 2015 The University of Findlay will be offering an English and American Culture International Summer Camp. The camp is tailored to offer students instruction based on their skills and proficiency and will be placed in one of three different English levels.

The University of Findlay Summer Camp will strongly blend English and American culture in the form of English classroom instruction, guest lectures, and field trips both academic and recreational in nature. To mention a few examples, students will be visiting local area companies and museums, while also finding themselves in amusement parks for some recreational fun. The camp is conducted in a controlled and safe environment. To learn more about the summer camps kindly email butler@findlay.edu.

Summer Camp residential participants will live in either a UF residence hall or a UF Welcome House. Room assignments are made randomly, unless a specific roommate is requested. The rooms are designed to house two participants. Each residence hall room features bunk beds, and student desks.

Each floor has a lounge with cable television. Laundry facilities are available in each building. Telephone service is not provided in individual rooms, unless a medical condition warrants immediate phone access at all times.

Participants will also be able to utilize some recreational features of the Koehler Fitness and Recreation Center. The center houses the Malcolm Athletic Center, the Student Recreation Center, the UF Athletic Hall of Fame, a varsity weight room, game room, cardio center and a racquetball court.

The weather in Ohio during the summer months is usually warm and humid. All residence hall rooms and academic buildings are air-conditioned. As you pack, remember to include casual comfortable clothes, at least two pairs of comfortable shoes, a swimsuit, personal toiletries, an alarm clock and umbrella. Be advised that some activities and field trips may result in wet and soiled clothes.

Residence hall rooms should be locked at all times. Participants are responsible for their own belongings, money, and room key. In addition, participants are responsible for any damages that occur to the residence hall room and other university property. A fee of $25 will be assessed for lost room keys.
