NOTE: If your current SAI is at or below zero, you are not eligible for a Special Circumstances Appeal as adjustments to your FAFSA will not change your eligibility for need-based aid.

The University of Findlay has established a Special Circumstances Appeal process to allow for adjustments to an individual's federal aid application based on circumstances within the household. If you have experienced a significant change in income or life-event that has altered your income since filing your 2023 taxes, you may submit this appeal to have your financial aid eligibility reviewed. Please allow 2-4 weeks to review.

Section A: Required Documentation

The following documentation is required for all appeal circumstances. Required documentation not submitted with this appeal will cause a delay in the review process. You may also submit additional documentation not listed below if you feel it will support your appeal.

* You must attach a signed written statement detailing the specifics of your circumstances and providing any pertinent information that will help us better understand your particular situation.
