

AMBER G. WOLFROM, M.A., OCPC
Deputy Director
Hancock County Alcohol, Drug Addiction & Mental Health Services Board
438 Carnahan Avenue Findlay, Ohio 45840
419-424-1985 awolfrom@yourpathtohealth.org

Amber Wolfrom is the Deputy Director of the Hancock County (Ohio) Board of Alcohol, Drug Addiction and Mental Health Services. She completed her undergraduate work at The University of Toledo. Amber spend the first seven years of her career in addiction prevention, becoming an Ohio Certified Prevention Consultant and participating in many regional and statewide initiatives. While completing her Masters at The University of Findlay, Amber made a career change to manage the bereavement services department of a hospice organization that served eight counties. While there, she worked with families struggling with the same issues that placed her on the behavioral health services path in the beginning. Amber returned to the ADAMHS Board in 2013 to facilitate the Recovery Oriented System of Care transformation for Hancock County and begin implementing the Trauma-Informed Care Learning Community for twenty-one local organizations. She is a trainer for the Ohio Department of Mental Health and Addiction Services' "Ohio Trauma-Informed Approach Training" and the Ohio Peace Officer Training Commission's "Trauma Informed Policing Training". Amber has presented at regional, state and national conferences on the positive impact trauma-informed care approaches can make on a community's safety net services.
