

Agreement between
 The Heidelberg University's Master of Athletic Training Program
 Junior Admit Option
 and
 The University of Findlay's Health and Human Performance Programs

Whereas, Heidelberg University (HU) and The University of Findlay (UF) share a learner-centered and a high-quality approach to higher education, and

Whereas, they share a mutual desire to create a path for UF students that leads to the completion of a Bachelor of Science degree granted by The University of Findlay and a Master of Athletic Training (MAT) degree granted by Heidelberg University, and

Whereas, the two institutions have a shared interest in providing guidance and improving access for qualified UF students to HU's MAT degree program;

NOW THEREFORE, it is agreed that UF students will have met HU's MAT Program's prerequisite requirements upon successful (i.e., minimum GPA of 3.0) completion of the following courses which are consistent with the expectations set forth for HU students.
