

Faculty, Full Time, Tenure-Track Occupational Therapy Faculty

The University of Findlay invites applications for a full-time (12 month) tenure-track faculty position in the dynamic and growing Occupational Therapy (OT) Program. Accredited since 1997, both Traditional and Weekend tracks received a full 10-year re-accreditation in 2013. The curriculum emphasizes occupation and community-based practice as well as emerging practice areas. The Occupational Therapy Program is one of the graduate programs within the College of Health Professions. Other graduate programs in the college include physical therapy, physician assistant, health informatics, and athletic training. Within the university, there are opportunities for interdisciplinary teaching, research, and service. The University offers many resources as well as a mentoring program for all new faculty operated by the Center for Teaching Excellence. Rank and salary commensurate with qualifications. Anticipated start date is August 1, 2018.

The most qualified candidate will possess a Doctoral degree in Occupational Therapy. All eligible candidates must possess a degree in occupational therapy; a license (or license eligible) in the state of Ohio and either a doctoral degree plus experience meeting the University's guidelines for professional equivalency to teach at the graduate level, or a Master's degree in Occupational Therapy plus experience meeting the University's guidelines for professional equivalency to teach at the graduate level; a proven track record of clinical practice (candidates from all areas of practice are encouraged to apply, special consideration may be given for those with mental health experience); teaching experience and desire to work closely with students in the classroom and throughout the advising process; evidence of a research/scholarship agenda (presentations, publications, interests); and strong communication skills with desire to work collaboratively within and outside the OT Program.
