Staffing as needed for Administrative Offices: The above lists eleven (11) holidays, which are listed in the employee handbook, and four (4) days for operational staffing, November 25, December 28, 29, and 30. On those four (4) days, it is important to meet needs of students, parents, faculty, staff, prospective students, and others.

Each Cabinet Member will be responsible for designating the required staffing for their areas. Signage should be provided as to when office areas are open and closed. If there are any questions, please see the Cabinet Member of your area or the Human Resource Department.
