College of Health Professions

Department of Nursing Chair

The University of Findlay invites applications for the Department of Nursing Chair position. This is a full-time, tenure track, and 12-month appointment.

A licensed registered nurse with an earned terminal degree in nursing or a related field is required. Applicants must possess or be eligible for an Ohio Nursing License and have a minimum of three years of clinical experience. Experience and knowledge in a supervisory position within nursing academic administration is preferred. Prior college teaching experience is required. Rank and salary are commensurate with qualifications. Candidates must be committed to student-centered education as well as professional development and scholarship. The ideal candidate will be an individual with a passion for the nursing profession and a vision for professional education, possess strong leadership skills, have experience with accreditation, and have a record of scholarly and professional activity. Strong communication skills and a desire to work with students in a university setting are expected.

Founded in 1882, The University provides innovative programs grounded in the liberal arts and sciences to prepare students for meaningful lives and productive careers. The University of Findlay's distinctive and renowned programs include MBA, animal science, equestrian studies, pre-veterinary medicine, nuclear medicine technology, occupational therapy, physical therapy, pharmacy, and physician assistant, as well as environmental, safety and occupational health management.
