

March 25 Campus Update Regarding Coronavirus

To the UF Community:

Good afternoon. We have just a few brief updates for today.

Remote Learning

- CTE, ITS/ATS, and the Office of Online and Alternative Delivery are working together to answer questions and provide on-going support to faculty and students as they teach and learn remotely. Visit the CTE homepage <https://www.findlay.edu/offices/academic/center-teaching-excellence/> and the following help pages for frequently updated resources:

Findlay Music Festival

- For those of you who purchased T-Pain concert tickets, we are in the process of re-scheduling the Findlay Music Festival for Saturday, October 10, 2020 so it coincides with Homecoming. Once things are confirmed, an email with more details will be sent. If you currently have a ticket, you can keep it and use it for the re-scheduled show. If, though, you will be unable to attend the re-scheduled show, you may request a refund by emailing the Marathon Center for Performing Arts at tickets@mcpa.org.

On-Campus Housing

- One last reminder that all residential students who have not officially checked out of their room must complete the following form by Wednesday, March 25 to indicate if they will be remaining in their assigned space or will be checking out: <https://forms.gle/vUV5LkgMhu6F1zT28>.

If you have suggestions or questions, please email them to coronavirus@findlay.edu. Also, please visit the Coronavirus Disease \(COVID-19\) Information web page for current status reports. Additionally, we would encourage you to download the Oiler Mobile App (available at App Store and Google Play), and enable push notifications.

As always, thank you for your understanding and thoughtful feedback as we work our way through this one day at a time. We will continue to do our best to provide up-to-date information on the changing situation.

Regards,

David Emsweller
